BORN.

HAYDEN—in Truckee, Cal., June 15th, 1878, to the wife of E. W. Hayden—a daughter.

NEW PRINCIPAL—Mrs. M. L. Ormsby, of New York, has been engaged to succeed Miss Sill, as Principal of the "School for Girls." She is a graduate of Vassar college and has for two years past been at the head of the Seabury Institute in New York city. She has the reputation of being a highly accomplished lady, and a thorough and successful teacher.

SPECIAL PREMIUMS.—We publish on another page an article under the above head, which should call forth a generous response. Read it and say what you will do immediately. Now is the time to set the State fair ball in motion, and special premiums will indicate the degree of interest taken by Reno's citizens.

NOTICES.

—Brookins & Co. have just received an invoice of the latest vocal and instrumental music.

—Half fare to and from Bowers' Mansion to-morrow on the V. & T. R. R., or $1.50 for the round trip.

—Com. Virginia pays its $1 dividend to-day. California pays a dividend of $2 per share on Monday.

—The Reno Sporting club will have some glass ball shooting to-morrow at 10 A. M., at the fair grounds.

—Miss Emma Crocker has returned from Newcastle, where she has been rustication a couple of months. She is much improved in health.

—The Adjutant-General last night sent two cases of arms, and 5,000 rounds of ammunition to Governor Bradley at Elko.

—Praise service at 7:30 to-morrow evening at the Methodist church. At 8 o'clock, lecture. Subject: "Curse, Like Chickens, Come Home to Roost."

—The Workingmen meet this evening at the court-house instead of the opera house, as heretofore. A lively time is anticipated. Perhaps a few resignations will be in order.

—The English mill will be started up Monday by J. E. Jones & Co. The first ore to be worked will be some custom ore. It will be one or two weeks before any Jones & Kinkead ore will be milled.

—Mr. Geo. Becker has the thanks of the employees of this office for half a dozen bottles of Boca beer. This comes in at exactly the right time, considering that the weather is warm and to-morrow Sunday. Here's to your health, Mr. B., and may you grow none the less affectionate toward the weary printer.

—MORE TROUBLE.—And now comes Hayden, the same who hath connection with this office, and elsewhere makes announcement that his household doth rejoice, because a new member has been added to the home circle. The object under consideration belongs to the feminine gender, and we are therefore at a loss to know what part of the office work she will perform. For the first year—but we are getting into deep water!—Mrs. H. will have immediate supervision over her. The second year she might sling ink, play the devil, distribute the type, or use a stick. However, the above is sufficient "proof" that this article is long enough.

—For pianos and organs visit Brookins, & Holmes' piano warerooms on Virginia street, Reno, Nevada. This firm will sell cheaper than any house on the coast. Old pianos and organs taken in exchange for new. Instruments sold on easy installments. Pianos and organs for rent. 6-4-1f

—ONE OF TULEY'S YARN.—Talk about check and Sazerac, listen at this. Tuley Frank crossed his legs recently and without a word of warning told this. "I knew a man once who went out hunting at Washoe City. He wanted to kill a mess of geese. The geese was hollerin' like blazes about 300 yards off, and this feller he had one of them long goose guns. He panted his gun and pulled the trigger. The gun snapped and he turned the gun up to see what ailed her. He see the charge comin' out lickety brindle, so he took aim again and when that charge go clear from the old shooter, it went over and killed fifteen geese. We're do you keep your drinking water around here?"

—CHARACTERISTIC.—The Presbyterian Sunday school of Virginia city will hold their picnic at Bowers' Mansion on the 22d. It will now be in order for Deacon Parkinson to pour forth his sympathy for the teachers, Superintendent and little children, as he did for the Pacific Coast Pioneers. No doubt the latter organization feel very badly over the good Deacon's perplexity that they did not come to Carson. Yet, if the weather holds favorable, it is presumed by excellent authority that they will survive his gentle, manly and unselfish pleasure. Go to with such vile, abominable becomings.

—RUMORED.—It is said that Judge Wright will move over to Reno, in order to be around during campaign times. He no doubt thinks that the festive voter of Washoe needs watching and conciliation. Ought to bring Parkinson with him.

A TRUCKEE REVIVAL.—They had a large revival in Truckee recently, and, among others, a repentant bootblack came to the mourner's bench. Said he, in relating his experience: "I've been a purty tough citizen, I have, and I've twigg'd myself. I've dropped on myself now, and tumbled to the true rackett of a Christian life. No more kittin' dogs or kerusseus' cats for me—not fur Joe. I'm goin' to buckle my nozzle on along an' all that, so that I kin live an spright Christian life, an' don't you forget it!" And then he sat down, bathed in pentent tears.

BISHOP'S DIRECTORY.—Attention is called to the advertisement of Bishop's directory for Virginia city, Carson and Reno. The agent will be here during the week to obtain the necessary information, and his work ought to be aided in every possible way.

BRANCH SUIT AND CLOAK HOUSE.—Weil Brothers announce to the people of Reno that they have just opened in Reno a branch of the Cleveland Suit and Cloak company. As they get their goods directly from the manufacturer they can, therefore, undersell all other Reno merchants and yet make a profit on their goods.

—The Workingmen meet this evening at the court-house instead of the opera house, as heretofore. A lively time is anticipated. Perhaps a few resignations will be in order.

—The English mill will be started up Monday by J. E. Jones & Co. The first ore to be worked will be some custom ore. It will be one or two weeks before any Jones & Kinkead ore will be milled.

SATURDAY..... JUNE 15, 1878.

"LET IT RUN ALONG AS IT IS."

When Anderson told honest John Sherman in a New Orleans restaurant that the Packard and Kellogg party had determined to carry the State by using his false and forged protest, Sherman replied: "It is not for us to discuss that. You just let the matter run along as it is." Anderson let the matter run along as it was, and the vote for Louisiana was fraudulently counted for Hayes. Later, when the fraud came before the Joe Bradley commission, that body declared by a vote of eight to seven, "it is not for us to discuss that; let the matter run along as it is." The friends of Hayes are just at present very anxious that the matter should continue to run along just as it is; but it has run long enough, and it is high time to discuss it.

The Eureka Sentinel wrote the above, and then stopped, out of breath.

We shall go on with it a little farther: When Hayes was questioned as to his anxiety about the Potter movement, he said: "Let it go on as it is." When the fraud-hunters met and found perjurers for witnesses, Republicans folded their arms and said, "Let it run along as it is." When Ben Butler denounced Anderson as a perjurer, blackmailer and loafer, that worthy admitted that it was correct and wanted it to run along as it is. When Sammy Tilden hatched the seditious egg which Conkling laid, and brought forth Potter, the old man was pleased at his work, and a chuckle issued from Gramercy park which reached even to the New York Sun office. But the people, seeing that Sammy has lost his vigor and is at best but a self-emasculated man, said: "Let it run along as it is." When the Democrats invited the attention of this people to their new powder mill, the people smiled ominously and said, with one hand upon the sword, "Let things run along as they are." And, finally, when a solid Democracy goes before the people and asks the reins of government because they have not forgotten the old hate, and would willingly incite another conflict, the people will again say, this time at the polls, "Let things run along as they are."

SPECIAL PREMIUMS.

The preparations for the fifth annual fair are now going forward with a will. The society will, as usual, put up a large amount in cash premiums—between $12,000 and $15,000 in the speed ring and principal departments at the fair grounds alone. The citizens of Reno and Nevadagenerally have always been liberal in response to the call for special premiums. We hope they will not fail during the year to come. For the ladies' tournament, shooting match, special exhibits, and largest exhibits in different departments, special premiums should be offered. These should come, as formerly, from the citizens of Reno, in great part. They should be announced now. The Trustees are now busy preparing their pamphlet for publication, and are desirous of announcing the special premiums with the rest. We hope every business man in Reno will take the right view of this matter, and do what he can. Let the Trustees, or Secretary, Mr. Crockett, know what you will do in this direction, so that the premium and your liberality may be properly set forth in the society pamphlet. Such gifts are in the nature of good investments, which will return large rates of interest. We hope that there will be a liberal response to the Secretary before Wednesday next.

Affairs in Quebec.

A dispatch from Quebec June 13th, says: The strike has the appearance to-day of terminating quietly on account of the pressure of so large a force of military in town. Montreal troops, consisting of the Prince of Wales' Rifles, Victoria and Fifth Fusiliers, arrived by a special train about 8 o'clock and immediately proceeded to the citadel. The different regiments have been relieving each other ever since at the citadel and Parliament House. The mob met at Jacques Cartier Hall about 8 o'clock A. M. and were addressed by one of their leaders, but refused to follow him in any numbers, and most of them dispersed quietly. A small assembly of rioters marched as far as the Esplanade this morning, but then dispersed and hid their flag. A considerable mob has congregated, however, all day near Louis Gates, principally, no doubt, to watch the troops. Two or three arrests have been made by detectives of parties supposed to have been leading in the riots, who were conveyed to jail by the military. An inquest was adjourned until to-morrow.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Porter Rockwell, one of the most respected of Mormon church leaders, died in Salt Lake on Sunday, the 9th. The church will no doubt mourn the death of the deceased brother in polygamy. Mr. Rockwell was ambitious enough to aim at the highest. Having read of certain paltry crimes, he devoted his life to shaming them. An earnest man always succeeds, and Rockwell could no doubt say that he was the vilest, most beastly and unscrupulous dastard that ever lived. Rockwell graduated with high honors in the murderer's academy, and has maintained his standing by strangling infants and shooting men in the back. He has insulted his maker by living and is an offense to mankind dead. Of the same order of brutes are the men who maintained him and made such a horrible career possible. The Mormon church should denounce him.

The Eureka Sentinel wrote the above, and then stopped, out of breath.

Laura De Force Gordon thinks she would like to be a delegate to the constitutional convention, and announces herself. Seems to us that a woman ought to be a success at electioneering. Some men never would be popular, you know, but a woman has so many more inducements and arguments than us poor brutes. Mrs. L. de F. ought to make a good delegate, as she has not achieved phenomenal success at anything else.

LETTER FROM AUSTIN.

The "Gazette" Correspondent Discourses of Railroads, Decoration Day, Politics, Churches and Unfortunate Ministers.

Ed. Evening Gazette: Jupiter Pluvius, has been on a week's visit to Pony canyon and Reese River valley, and the gentle savage has been obliged to take himself to the shelter of awnings, where he stands wrapped in his bright blanket, like some rude caryatid upholding the red man's dignity. The sage brush looks really cheerful, and one can almost imagine that the flowers on spring bonnets look brighter and fresher; they are our only flower gardens, anyhow, and serve to remind one of places where flowers really bloom.

To say that Austin is dull is only echoing the saloon keeper, who announces it with very emphatic adjectives. The $25,000 disbursed on payday seems to have had no more outlet than the sink of the Humboldt, or the Bahr Leet, and "like the baseless fabric of a vision" it has not left even a ripple behing.

"WAIT TILL THE RAILROAD COMES," says one, "and then we'll have good times." It reminds me of Fritz Frank whose native place was Long Swamp. Democratic returns were coming in slowly, and Fritz, who was waiting among others remarked at some adverse district was read off. "Just wait till Long Swamp comes in, and don't make, what?" Fritz had unbounded faith in the Democratic balancing powers and "stay" of his native place. There are some here who have not implicit faith in the railroad. But the 4th is coming; a corollary to

DECORATION DAY, that last and most abused holiday, when one recalls the grand regiments of stalwart men as they marched through to that modern Acalaima, the seat of the rebellion, and the thinned skeletons that returned; or the mourning, deeper than that of Egypt over the first-born; or the crop of orphans bequeathed to the nation; or the bitter and devilish hate exhibited by the South; or recalls, for a moment, the martyred Lincoln, meekest and best of men, one can almost bleed for the mandolin sympathy which insults our fallen heroes by crowning these implacable and bitter foes with the laurels which belong alone to the grave of the patriot. Austin does not take much stock in decorating, as she was not built in the days of the rebellion, but she is interested in

INVESTIGATIONS, and watching with bated breath for the unseating of Hayes. Joe Smith, the prophet, used to tell a story of a ram owned by his father who broke his neck biting at an old hat because he thought there was a man's head in it. That ram was a Democrat, sure. We are excited here just now over

THE BANNOCK OUTBREAK, and we may hear any day "the widowed drum" calling for recruits, but the "White Pine veterans" of Eureka are within call, and Captain Hubbard still to the fore, and we feel comparatively safe. On Sunday next will be consecrated the new Episcopal church here, and Parson Kelly is to preach the sermon, and Kelly is a war horse in the pulpit. The church, which was built principally by A. A. Curtis, is a very handsome structure, and a credit to our little camp.

THE METHODIST CHURCH, which has been vacant for some time, and wilting under the cornice "Bohon Upas," has just received a fresh installment of pastor, and the number of friends who attended Sunday's service was something surprising. He is young and single. The Lord help him if he's not pious, too, and Judge Logan is away on his ranch, which makes his case desperate.

ENTRIES,

ACCIDENT AT A FIRE.

A New York dispatch of June 14th says: A fire broke out last night in frame house at 128 Bowery street, occupied as a cheap-john auction-room. The fire was quickly controlled, and a number of firemen climbed on the roof and the first floor to extinguish the flames. The roof suddenly fell in, going through to the ground and burying a dozen or more firemen among the ruins, all of whom were severely injured, but none killed.

Fritz had unbounded faith in the Democratic balancing powers and "stay" of his native place. There are some here who have not implicit faith in the railroad. But the 4th is coming; a corollary to

DECORATION DAY, that last and most abused holiday, when one recalls the grand regiments of stalwart men as they marched through to that modern Acalaima, the seat of the rebellion, and the thinned skeletons that returned; or the mourning, deeper than that of Egypt over the first-born; or the crop of orphans bequeathed to the nation; or the bitter and devilish hate exhibited by the South; or recalls, for a moment, the martyred Lincoln, meekest and best of men, one can almost bleed for the mandolin sympathy which insults our fallen heroes by crowning these implacable and bitter foes with the laurels which belong alone to the grave of the patriot. Austin does not take much stock in decorating, as she was not built in the days of the rebellion, but she is interested in

INVESTIGATIONS, and watching with bated breath for the unseating of Hayes. Joe Smith, the prophet, used to tell a story of a ram owned by his father who broke his neck biting at an old hat because he thought there was a man's head in it. That ram was a Democrat, sure. We are excited here just now over

THE BANNOCK OUTBREAK, and we may hear any day "the widowed drum" calling for recruits, but the "White Pine veterans" of Eureka are within call, and Captain Hubbard still to the fore, and we feel comparatively safe. On Sunday next will be consecrated the new Episcopal church here, and Parson Kelly is to preach the sermon, and Kelly is a war horse in the pulpit. The church, which was built principally by A. A. Curtis, is a very handsome structure, and a credit to our little camp.

THE METHODIST CHURCH, which has been vacant for some time, and wilting under the cornice "Bohon Upas," has just received a fresh installment of pastor, and the number
